Ensure every participant is aware of:

- Purpose of research
- Interview to be recorded
- Transcript to be sent within 3 weeks and acknowledged within 4 weeks
- Possibility of emotional triggers

Atmospherics:

I offered J the choice to chat first or just get started, which we did very naturally.

Pointers for transcription or analysis:

I think there are some nice examples of the experience of interviewing. J also mentions the pleasure of writing, and that research is not a set of isolated processes. I don't think she used the word iterative, but that's how I interpreted her meaning.

I went back to ask her about her comment about context and how everything is data to her. She made some helpful remarks about the practicalities of research, and of a research career. Although a qualified teacher, J has never taught qual.

Additional comments:

In my anxiety to back up my recording, (which I got Jackie's consent for) I forgot to press recording Zoom!

Follow-up the references that she says she has and is keen for others to see.

Issues of anonymity and pseudonymisation, pronouns and disciplinary field:

We have agreed to leave identifiers in the transcript for now and she will make a decision about anonymity at that point. She feels she has nothing to lose and hasn't said anything derogatory. I'm inclined to agree.
